

SCHOOL NOTICE.—A public examination of the several Schools of the Village of St. Clairsville, O. will be held at the Conrt House on the 2d, & 3d, days of July hest. Exercises from 8, to 11 o'clock, A. M. and from 2, to 5, o'clock P. M.

The friends of education in the Village & vicinity generally, are respectfully invited to attend. A Celebration will be held on July 4th. Preparatory to marching to the Grove, Teachers, students, parents will meet at the Court House at 9 o'clock A. M. The Declaration of Independence will be read, and addresses made suitable for the occasion.

By order of the Board of Directors.

"M. J. W. GLOVER, Clerk.

"KEEP TO THE RIGHT"-says the law of roads and bridges, but sometimes it is right and proper to keep to the left. For instance: if a body keeps to the left in approaching our market from the North side the very first man that appears is Mr. ISAAC CEAFT, who has, every market merning, a bountiful supply of the best kind of beef, mutton and veal, which Le will cut to suit purchasers. Remember, and keep

Por The heart of the author of the following exquisite lines must be a volume of song, and this but one of its bursts of music. As a specimen of beautiful imagery it is equal to anything Bailey or Alex-under Smith ever conceived. Round and perfect as a dew-drop, it reflects from its crystal surface the divinity of its author's heart. Would that more such poetry were given to the world; there's room in the earth for volumes of such, but who alas, is to write it. We find the following in that excellent paper The Home Journal:

Have you not heard the poet tell How came the dainty Babie Bell Into this world of ours? The gates of Heaven were left ajar: With folded hands and dreamy eyes She wandered out of paradise! She saw this planet like a star, liung in the depths of purple even-Its bridges running to and fro. O'er which the white wing'd scraphs go, Bearing the holy dead to Heaven!

She touched a bridge of flowers-those feet So light they did not bend the bells Of the celestial asphodels! They fell like dew upon the flowers' And all the air grew strangely sweet! And thus came dainty Babie Bell Into this world of ours.

An immense concourse of people were assem bled in Jacobsburg, on Saturday last at the Masonic celebration. Of masons alone there were probably between 250 and 300, but of outsiders there was more than four times that number. The procession repaired to a pleasant grove in the vicinity of the village, where after a prayer by Rev. Bro. Cross, they By am't collected on dup icate of 1854 listened to an excellent address from Rev. Bro. D. S. Welling. The address was a successful refutation of all the charges brought against the fraternity, and exhorted the brethren to illustrate the beauties and virtues of masonry by a strict observance of all its requirements. To which we respond, 'So mote
